Experience

Pamela K. Rose was the first of four daughters to follow in her father's footsteps and become an auctioneer at 18 years old. She has been licensed in the auction business since 1987. She won the National Auctioneer's Association Women's International Auctioneer Championship in 1998. She has continued to win numerous other awards and appointments in the industry including Appointed Chairperson of the NAR Auction Committee in 2007 for the 50,000 member National Association of Realtors. Pamela served six years on the Ohio Auction Commission.

As president of Pamela Rose Auction Co. LLC, one of the largest real estate auction firms in the Midwest, she conducted upwards of 20,000 auctions in her 32 year career.

Pamela holds the record for the most expensive home sold at auction in Michigan for $4,950,000. Pamela also conducted the largest auction in Ohio with a gross selling price of $23,000,000, making Pamela one of the top 5 Real Estate Agents in Ohio.

Pamela Rose is rated as one of the top auction specialist in the industry. She is both nationally and locally recognized in every aspect of asset marketing, management, and liquidation. She has received recognition from the State Senators, Mayors, and Congressman for outstanding achievement. She is a leader among her peers having received awards for both National and State Real Estate marketing and sales.

With experience, knowledge, and dedication, Pamela Rose Auction Co. LLC stands ready to conduct auction sales from charity events to multi-million dollar real estate projects. All with the personal attention that allows each of our clients to know that every detail is handled right the first time. Pamela Rose has provided her clients with professional Real Estate, Personal Property, Estate, and Fundraising Auction services and has served numerous sellers with a common goal... to make their assets bring top market value.
